

Reading Response

Good readers think about what they read and respond to it. Please respond to your reading once a week in this response journal.

Your response should be at least _____ good sentences. Remember to use your writing checklist and word wall in your take home folder. Also be sure to write the date and the title of the book you read for each journal entry.

Please use the questions below to help you with your response.

- What happened in the story? Retell the story with beginning, middle, and end.
- What was the problem? Was it solved? If so, how?
- Who were the characters? Describe them.
- Where did the story take place? Describe the setting.
- What did the story teach you?
- What was the main idea?
- Did this book remind you of another book or something from your life? How?
- Would you like to be friends with the main character? Why?
- How did you feel or what did you think when you read this book?
- What do you predict will happen next in the story?
- Would you like to be a character in this story? Why or why not?
- Would you recommend this book to someone? Why or why not?
- Did you like this book? Why or why not?